FOREWORD

Little book, may none who look
Within thy pages fail to find
Some record clear, some memory dear
Of these four years we leave behind.
The work and play of every day
Thus may they here reflected see,
And crowning all, the great, the small,
Simmons, the love we bear to thee.

Gertrude O'Neil, '18, Treasurer

The Student Government Council this year has been occupied not so much with constructive measures as with the general administration of the undergraduate life and activities.

Before the end of the year, however, the Council hopes to have incorporated a set of by-laws in the Student Government Constitution, to have organized Red Cross Surgical Dressings work, and, in addition to the undergraduate census for war service taken in the Fall, to have compiled an Honor Roll of all Simmons faculty, alumnae, and former students who are now engaged in war service work.

Simmons has been represented at four intercollegiate conferences during the Winter: In November, the conference of the Women's Intercollegiate Student Government Association at Syracuse University, Syracuse, N. Y.; in December, the conference of the Intercollegiate Community Service Association at Wellesley College; in January, the conference of the Boston Food Facts Bureau for New England colleges; and in March, the conference at Wheaton College for Vocational Opportunities for College Women.

Simmons has responded worthily and generously to the Student Friendship War Fund, the Red Cross membership campaign, the Camp Library Fund, the Smileage Campaign, and the Second Liberty Loan of 1917. By the combined efforts of the undergraduates and faculty a $1200 Liberty Bond was purchased and with it, as the first step in the realization of the long-dreamed-of Simmons Students' Building, the fund for such a building was started.

Dormitory Government Association

Elnora Blanchard, Treasurer — Sylvia Wallace, President
Rae Finsterwald, Vice-President — Katharine Rock, Secretary

It is with geat success that the Dormitory Government Council has carried on the plan, adopted during 1916-17, of having Senior House Chairmen at the affiliated houses. Much credit is due these Seniors for their work. Not the least of their responsibilities has been that of explaining the true meaning of Student Government and the obligations of Freshmen as members of such an association.

A new feature in the form of an Economy League has been established at the suggestion of Miss Arnold. In each dormitory there are several members of this league whose duty it is to effect conservation in the use of lights and in various other ways.

During the year there has been a general revision of rules, and the rules have been put in permanent form and posted on the bulletin board in each house. It is hoped in this way to create a greater spirit of coöperation through perfect understanding.

The greatest task which the Council has before it is that of impressing on every resident of the dormitories the true meaning of Student Government—democracy—and the fact that the only way in which Simmons can obtain the highest type of Student Government is by the staunch support and good will of every single girl.

"If this year is to be any better than former years, any nobler in character and attainment, it will be because we have learned more perfectly the power of self-government, self-discipline, self-sacrifice."

The Dramatic Association

Sally Page, President.
Margaret Daniels, Vice-President
Margaret Pickles, Secretary
Marie O'Connor, Treasurer
Dorothy McKissick, Chairman of Dramatics

This has been the third year in the life of our Dramatic Club, and as might be expected, has been a year of great promise. The increase in membership, making the Dramatic the largest club in the College, with an enrollment of 132, means added enthusiasm. More girls and different girls have tried out for parts in the plays, and the general interest of the entire student body in the activities and productions has been highly encouraging. The plays given in conjunction with the Boston Simmons Club in November brought $100 for the Simmons War Relief Fund, the Graduates' share being used in their Red Cross Work.

Persimmons

H. Wurtz Bach M. Scott H. Merriam Business Manager C. Brown M. Hatch Editor-in-Chief M. Fitch Publicity Agent K. Rock I. Starbuck

Four years ago Persimmons entered college just as the Class of 1918 did. While Freshmen we commenced to support the magazine, both as subscribers and contributors, and have continued to do our share.

As we have grown, so has the magazine. Its four years of existence have been years of experiment, but it has proved without question that there is a place for a college magazine here in Simmons. Like last year, there have been five issues during the college season, in two of which there were inserts with the pictures of sister classes and their class songs. Another number was written entirely by the girls from foreign countries who are studying here.

Y. W. C. A.

Marion E. Robertson, President
Adelaide F. Mason, Vice-President
Marion D. Alcott, Secretary
Stella M. Morse, Treasurer

The threefold interest of the Young Women's Christian Association is well brought to the foreground in the three red-letter activities marking the Y. W. C. A. work of this college year. First chronologically, and vaguest—because of its comparative remoteness—our knowledge of evangelistic work and of the condition and needs of foreign missions was marvelously increased through the opportunities attending the holding at Simmons of the Annual Student Volunteer Convention. As a result of the enthusiasm aroused by the discussions and the contagious spirit of the delegates, the mission study classes customarily held the second half of the year were carried on during the first term.

Late in November the opportunity for a direct share in war work came to the Association. Coöperating with all the college branches of the Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. A. in this country, it brought its energies to play in the drive for the Student Friendship War Fund. After an intense campaign of one week, and a two weeks' interval in which to pay pledges made, the Simmons contribution to the fund amounted to $2,600.

Since "to deepen through every individual in the college the ideal of Christ" is the foremost aim, the new program being carried on constitutes, perhaps, the most important part of the work of this year. The scheme was worked out with special reference to the needs of the time, there being offered a systematic study of the life of Christ in its relation to world democracy.

The Social and Civic Club

Lillian Gates, Chairman

Anne Mulcaster
Elinor Reilly
Alice Griffin
Belle Schonfeld
Beatrice Gilman
Margaret Nellis
Fannie Johnson
Margaret McDowell

The work of the club this year has been carried on by the activities of its subcommittees and by monthly open meetings.

The subjects discussed in the open meetings were: Single Tax, Red Cross, Suffrage, Social Legislation, Immigration, National Prohibition, and Smileage.

The Civilian Relief Committee (Edith Dunn, chairman), has tried to awaken the girls to the needs of Civilian Relief, and act as a connecting link between the student body and Civilian Relief organizations of the city.

The Bulletin Board Committee (Margaret Nellis, chairman), has worked with Dr. Varrell's Current Events Class, and placed on the Bulletin articles of current interest.

The coöperation of the Public Health and Red Cross committees was secured at the suggestion of Student Council.

The Public Health Committee (Helen Jacobs, chairman), has endeavored to promote the health of the girls, and, through its Smileage Campaign, tried to keep the students in touch with outside activities furthering public health and welfare.

The Red Cross Committee (Mary Hamblett, chairman), has aided the work of the Society in its Membership Drive, sale of seals, and distribution of wool.

The weakness of the Club has been a lack of definite work to be done by each member, and the Executive Committee has been working on a plan to secure a truly active membership. This plan suggests changing the Club, through a revision of the constitution, into a Civic League of college organizations having social and civic functions.

What is the Endowment Fund? Every "Simmonsite" should answer this question promptly. It is a fund—a rapidly growing one—which, when sufficiently large will be used for the construction of new dormitories. This year there have been so many more urgent demands that the fund has occupied a place in the background. It has been increased by the contributions received on December 12, its birthday, and by the "mile-of-pennies."

The Menorah Society

S. Yesner — R. Mandelstam, President — M. Strauss — B. Schonfeld

The Menorah Society has started on its second year in a manner which leaves nothing to be desired. Its activities are limited to lectures and study circles.

Among its speakers the Menorah has been fortunate in having Rabbi Levi of Boston, Dr. Newman of New York, and Rabbi Blau of Rochester. The lectures have been a source of inspiration. The object of the Menorah is the advancement and study of Jewish culture and ideals; it is along these lines that our speakers have talked to us.

Our interest manifests itself concretely in the Study Circle. Here we propose to study in more or less detail some particular phase of Judaism that appeals to us. For this purpose a leader and guide from Harvard University has been obtained.

It is our hope that more students will take advantage of the opportunity offered by Menorah. It is essentially academic; its symbol, the seven-branched candelabrum — Menorah — signifies seeking for light. Everyone will be cordially welcomed at the meetings. The lectures fall on every second Thursday of the month at 4.20; the study circles on the first and third Thursday of every month at 4.20.

Christian Science Society

D. Armington E. Sherman E. Swift President L. Gerow

This year, the Christian Science Society of Simmons College has held its meetings every Friday afternoon that the college was in session. As in other years, these meetings have continued to be a source of help and inspiration to those who took part. The members of this society have rejoiced in the opportunities for service that have been so many during the year, especially in contributing to the various funds and in helping with the Food Conservation work.

The years 1917-1918 have seen the Musical Association in a flourishing condition. To our former associates, the Glee and Mandolin Clubs, has been added the Orchestra. While this has existed for three years, it only became an official part of the Musical Association last June when its Constitution was signed. The Association could not hope to be nearly so great a factor in the college life if it were not for Miss Mabel Daniels, who, besides being Director of the Glee Club, takes great interest in the other clubs.

Three concerts have been given this year: one was given for the Alumnae at the time of the reunion, February 16; the regular concert came the 23d of February; and an additional one was given for the sailors at Commonwealth Pier on March 18.

Military drill, under the direction of Miss Diall, constituted a new and big part of the out-of-door exercise in the Fall. The Seniors were put through the tactics and they in turn assisted in the training of the Freshmen and volunteers from the other two classes. The hockey field was used as a parade ground, and as long as the weather permitted, squads drilled daily.

Tennis, hockey, and hiking offered the usual opportunities to those choosing these forms of recreation. Basketball had an enthusiastic run during the Winter months and gave way only to the track preparations in the Spring.

GEORGE WASHINGTON PARTY

February 23d was the day of our annual George Washington Party, given to us by Student Government. It was a typical old colonial party. All of the girls came in old-fashioned costumes, we ate old-fashioned dishes, and we danced old-time dances. But this wasn't all! A flag which now hangs in the Refectory had been given us by Miss Lawrence, a member of the Council, so this time was thought to be a fitting one for its presentation. The Dean also spoke to us.

MAY DAY

It's one thing to be aroused in the morning, but it's quite a different thing to be aroused by singing—so the last year's Seniors claim. It was their sister classmates who called for them on May Morning, and escorted them to the campus where they saw the president of the Senior Class made "Queen of the May." Next came the pole dance; and "last but not least" came their breakfast, chiefly in the form of strawberry shortcake.

FRESHMAN FROLIC

Rain, rain, go away.
Come again some other day.
So we Freshies, all dressed up,
Can go out and play today!

But words could not move the weather man. Pour it would on that Saturday, May 20. Freshmen, gone back to childhood days, had to change their plans—but the Refectory proved to be just as good a place in which to play. All such games as children play furnished fun for them. They even had a peanut race! Miss Tschaler and Miss Briggs, honorary members of the class, were initiated and dancing followed the ceremony.

ELECTION DAY

How excited we all were on our third election day, May 18th. First of all came the regular meetings of the three classes at which the officers for the coming year were chosen. Few of us knew the results of the voting until we all assembled in front of the Refectory at five o'clock. Excitement and enthusiasm held sway as the officers were named in rapid succession. But that was not all—there was a delicious supper which was followed by step-singing.

DORMITORY GOVERNMENT DANCE

More than ever before did the "dorm" girls feel that this was their biggest affair of the year. And more than ever did they feel that a dance could be given without the presence of the opposite sex and still be a great success. The place was the Refectory; the time—the evening of the seventh of October; the girls—well—all of the dormitory girls. The members of the Junior Welcoming Committee ushered each upper classman with a Freshman through the receiving line, which was made up of Dean Arnold, Sylvia Wallace, President of Dormitory Government, Mrs. Carr, Miss Goodrich, and the officers of Dormitory Government.

HALLOWEEN PARTIES

Halloween was duly celebrated in the Refectory. Helen McCulloch was chairman of the party. The guests were invited to attend in costume. After a delicious dinner, the lights were turned out and the witches stole forth and danced around a blazing cauldron while weird and creepy ghost stories were told.

Halloween was also celebrated at Pete House. The Sophomores had charge of the party. After a short entertainment, the girls enjoyed Halloween stunts, and if laughing and screaming signify enjoyment, the party was thoroughly successful. Miss Hale's singing and the Bachelor's Dream were the rival attractions.

When we gave up Junior Prom,
To you we looked quite calm,
But we need consolation
Since it was voted on;
Every Junior voted "Yes,"
But there were some tears, I guess,
For we know a bomb from Deutschland
Blew up our Junior Prom.

JUNIOR-SENIOR PICNIC 1918-1917

The day of the Junior-Senior Picnic was one long to be remembered. This annual event took place at Nantasket, and everyone enjoyed the sail down Boston Harbor.

At the beach athletic sports were enjoyed. The girls laughed heartily at their classmates who participated in hoop, three-legged, and relay races.

The sea air gave everyone a splendid appetite, and it was hard to wait for the order to form circles and enjoy the bountiful lunch which was served. After lunch, "Paragon" and its attractions were kept busy until boat time. Charlotte Ford and her committee arranged the picnic.

SENIOR HOUSE PARTY—1917

JUNIOR HOUSE PARTY—1918

JUNIOR-FRESHMAN PARTY

On November 24, 1917, the Juniors gave the Freshmen a "Stunt Party." The party began with a musical contest and was followed by old-fashioned games. After cider and pop-corn balls, class songs were sung, and the girls danced until time to leave.

1920 SOPHOMORE LUNCHEON

The biggest day in the year in the eyes of the class of 1920 was Saturday, November 10, when the Sophomore Luncheon was held in the Refectory. The room was attractively decorated with yellow crepe paper and chrysanthemums. One hundred and seventy-five of a class of one hundred and eighty were present, and such a spirit of good feeling and coöperation existed that everyone said, "I had one of the best times of my life."

Great credit is due to Margaret Milne, Chairman of the Committee in charge, and to the various committees of which Eleanor Jacobs, Rachel Farwell, and Ruth McArthur were chairmen.

Much of the jollity of the occasion was caused by the toastmistress, Edna Hall, the cheer-leader, Ruth Scully, and the representatives of the various schools: Household Economics, Ruth Gabler; Secretarial, Garriette Gordon; Librarian, Margaret Nellis; General Science, Marie O'Connor.

The class had the pleasure of being addressed by Miss Briggs and Miss Tschaler, and of welcoming Mrs. Lefavour into its membership. But the thing that everyone will never forget was the speech of Catherine Damon, the dearly beloved President of the class of 1920.

Florence C. Abbott

"Tut"

Secretarial

"Early to bed, late to rise."

This is Tut's motto. From 8 P.M. until 7.29 A.M. for sleep every day without a light cut is her record. Just once did she hear the "rising bell," and on that occasion she rushed into the hall, with boots, cloak, and valuables—because she thought she heard the fire bell!

Marion J. Abbott

"Dot"

Library

Choir, Glee Club (1, 2, 3, 4), Executive Board (2), Welcoming Committee (3), Treasurer of N. Y. State Club (3), President of N. Y. State Club (4), Dormitory Council (4).

Dot returned from Christmas vacation spent at Camp Grant, and was greeted with the question, "Were you vaccinated?" "Well, I should say so!" "Did it take?" It "took" her fancy, even if it never took in reality.

Marjorie I. Abbott

Secretarial

Secretarials: before you accept a position, be sure to find out from Marjorie some of the points gained from her own actual experience. She will tell you to make certain whether you are to do typewriting or handwriting!

Dorothy F. Adams

"Dot"

Household Economics

Welcoming Committee (3), Honor Board (3), Chairman Senior Adviser Committee (4), Chairman Prom Invitation Committee (3).

"Hail, blooming Youth!
May all your virtues with your years improve,
Till in consummate worth you shine the pride
Of these, our days, and succeeding times a bright example."

Marion A. Aldrich

Secretarial

We have a young lady named Aldrich
Whose lessons progress without a-hitch;
She's neat as a pin—
And, of course, she will win
A position like which there is "non-sich."

Salome W. Alger

Secretarial

Basketball (1, 2, 3), Glee Club (1, 2, 3, 4), Dramatics (2), Chairman Dramatics Clean-up Committee (4).

Salome is as versatile as she can be. She can perform with ease and grace in dramatics, in the "gym," or in the Glee Club.

EDITH MARION AMES

"Juliet"

Household Economics

Chairman Refreshments Junior Prom.

"Haste is undignified," Edith believes. She saunters through the subway while the rest of us make a mad dash for a retreating South Huntington car; yet she invariably arrives as soon as we. In spite of her seeming aversion to study, her sewing recitations are at once the pride and despair of the class.

RUTH M. AMSDEN

General Science

Oh! Ruth would farm in a chemical way
And feed her cows on synthetic hay;
She'd grow her potatoes on cyanamide;
Her acres would thrive on what Alex. Smith did.

But wait! That's not all, for a secret she bears;
Just take a peek at the wee pin she wears.
Chem is all right, and so is farming just now
But her future's revealed in her Tau Sigma Tau.

PEARL ANDREWS

"Tule"

Household Economics

Welcoming Committee (3), Junior Prom. Floor Committee (3).

Another box, Tule? 'T is sweaters and wristers, and wristers and socks, and tobacco, and books galore! You are a generous, jolly, good friend.

DOROTHY ANNABLE

"Dot"

Library

Welcoming Committee (3).

If you would be a friend of Dot's, never call her Annabellé. We are afraid that Dot will be all worn out trying to make fourth floor North behave.

DOROTHY FRANCES ARMINGTON

Secretarial

Vice-Chairman Christian Science Executive Board (4).

"Originality provokes originality."

Cultivate an independence of mind; deserve the good opinion of others; be neither too anxious nor yet indifferent of what others think of you.

FLORENCE EMILY BAILEY

Household Economics

How we envy Florence her ability to see the good in the worst of us! May the greatest success reward her ambition to become an "excellent" teacher.

Grace A. Baker

"Gracie B."

Secretarial

Committee on Class Officer Nominations (2), Senior Adviser Committee (4).

Let me tell you,—between you and me,—Gracie B. is one of the cleverest girls in our class—particularly with paper and pen. Did you ever receive one of her letters? No? You do not know what you have missed. We think that she will surely make a name for herself some day, and shall we not be proud of her!

Priscilla Bancroft

"Pris"

Library

Track Walk (1), Chairman Decoration Committee Sophomore-Senior Luncheon (2), Hockey (2, 4), Secretary Y.W.C.A. (3), S.A.A. Executive Board (3), Welcoming Committee (3), Tennis Manager (4), House Chairman (4), Usher Junior Prom (2).

Here comes Pris. Is she asking a question? No. She just wants you to come out for hockey. She goes out for everything there is—yes! She's one of the best of sports.

Olive Barrows

Household Economics

Hockey (3).

"How happy is he born or taught
That serveth not another's will,
Whose armour is his honest thought
And simple truth his utmost skill."

Substitute "she" for "he" and you have Olive to a "T."

Lucy Parsons Beck

"Becky" "Romeo"

Household Economics

"She that goes too hastily along, often stumbles on a fair road."

One-half of one set of 1918's Siamese twins. Unless you know her well, you know her not at all, for her sides are as many in number as those of an octagon. She is the girl who accomplishes so much in one minute that we who "move by the hour" look on with envy.

Louise Foote Beckwith

"Sue"

Household Economics

President S.A.A. (4), Tennis (1, 3, 4), Executive Board (1), Choir, Glee Club (1, 2, 3, 4), Cheer Leader (2 and 4), Chairman Acquaintance-Week Committee (2), Vice-President Dramatics (3), Welcoming Committee (3), Vice-President S.A.A. (3), Hockey (3, 4).

"Age cannot wither her, nor custom stale her infinite variety."

Who is she? One of a famous three. At present she is in more places, at more times, seeing more people than anyone we know. We understand that she is looking for a permanent position in a gymnasium.

Gladys S. Bishop

"Bish" "Glad"

Household Economics

Choir, Glee Club (1, 2, 3, 4), Secretary Connecticut Club (2), Vesper Committee (2).

Wanted:
A girl who doesn't worry,
A girl with an artist's mind,
A girl who thinks there's no hurry,
A girl who doesn't grind!

Found:
The girl who never worries,
The girl with the artist's mind,
'Tis Bish who never hurries,
Who doesn't know how to grind.

Millicent Bliss

"Mil"

Secretarial

Chairman Tea Committee (1), Class Treasurer (2), Chairman Flower Committee (2), Prom Usher (2), Chairman Corridor Committee (3), Welcoming Committee (3), House Chairman (4).

Our Millicent Bliss,
An immaculate miss,
Resideth in North Hall.
Her voice loud and cheery
Doth brighten the dreary
But "Faster!" say we all.

This maiden's desire
Herself to require
To reach professional mark.
Her talk's a "speed test,"
She beats all the rest
Who list' to the words of Miss Stark.

Margaret E. Brewer

Library

Margaret has not been with us very long, yet she has been long enough for us to find out about that good nature of hers.

Harriett E. Bosworth

Library

"Sweet are the thoughts that savor of content.
The quiet mind is richer than the crown."

Day after day, no matter how excited the rest of the class may be, Harriett goes her quick, conscientious way.

Elizabeth C. Brady

"Betty"

It is a woman's privilege to change her mind; why not change her name? Why did Betty leave Vassar to come to Simmons? To become a secretary, of course! What could have been done at "Tech" Red Cross without her? Brookline "Society," knitting, and aeronautics command so much of her time that we wonder how she manages to shine so brightly when grades come out to greet us.

Dorothy Crawford Blood

"Dot"

Secretarial

President Student Government (4), Chairman Refreshment Committee Freshman Frolic, Baseball (1), Chairman Stationery Committee (2), Student Conduct Committee (2), Welcoming Committee (3), Chairman Student Government Party (3).

"What e'er she did was done with so much ease,
In her alone 'twas natural to please."

Dot has been so fine a Student Government President that we know she will succeed,—especially if her future abode has "mahogany furniture and a fire-place." We hope that in days to come, as in days of yore, "the sight of her friends will still be holy."

Freda Marietta Briggs

"Freida"

Secretarial

Dormitory Government Council (4).

If she had do as her friends would have her done, if she had bit of ambition as she should have bite, none of which was did, she would not have been sick when she went to the hospital. Just the same, we wish we could have do as well in college.

Bessie Burnes

Household Economics

"A knowledge of domestic duties is beyond all price to a woman."

Bessie knows this truth, we are sure, for she acquires knowledge of sewing and cookery wholesale!

Elizabeth H. Clifford

"Bessie"

Secretarial

"Faithful in the least Faithful also in much."

There are few people who never show a disagreeable side to anyone. Bessie is one of the chosen few; the secret—she has none to show!

Ruth Byington

Secretarial

Yes, Ruth, Wheaton College is a pretty nice place, but we know you are glad that Simmons is your Alma Mater. Two years have convinced us that you will make a very efficient and charming secretary.

Ruth M. Collins

General Science

"For the man of independent mind
Looks and laughs at a' that."

Conservation, Ruth! Your monopoly on the Physics department will not work in war time!

Josephine E. Cauman

"Jo"

Secretarial

Treasurer Menorah Society (3).

What's the use of living if you cannot have your fun? This is one of the things that makes Jo so well liked, her love of fun. You can rely upon her not only to join in the fun but to stand by when one is in need of help. Her great ambition is to take dictation from wounded soldiers.

Agnes T. Conroy

Secretarial

"For she is a scholar, and a right good one."

We are glad that Agnes decided to come to Simmons after graduating from Normal School. When she is ready to launch upon a career, we suggest that she teach shorthand, for she certainly is an expert in that line.

Leah Enola Crabtree

Household Economics

Treasurer Maine Club (2), President Maine Club (4), Corridor Committee (3), Executive Board (4), Dormitory Council (4).

A girl with a personality so complex that it is dfficult to define her. For each of us she spends a different spirit. A girl whose path leads, as "Emerson" would say, to the true blue.

Marjorie Crawley

"Boonie"

Household Economics

"Her plain, simple name meant nothing at all,
Until after you had known her,"
And then you found that "Boon to Mankind"
Was surely not a misnomer.
She is a star when 'tis a question of "Chem," good-looking clothes, and "Mrs. Crawley."

Lillian Crawford

Secretarial

"Beauty is a fairy; sometimes she hides herself in a flower-cup, or under a leaf, or creeps into the old ivy, and plays hide-and-seek with the sunbeams, or laughs out of a bright young face."

Evelyn A. Croswell

Secretarial

Evelyn's thoughts just at present are centered about Washington. She has plenty of time, however, to give each of us a pleasant word or thought, and to be a "jolly good friend."

Edna W. Conway

Household Economics

Corridor Committee (3), Chairman Lunch-Room Committee (4).

Edna has a veritable gift for accomplishing things; she sews, she cooks, she manages our lunch-room with great determination and ability.

Althea Currin

Library

Chairman Camp Library Fund (4), Track Costume Committee (3).

Here is our little "Dutch Cleanser" girl. If it comes to chasing dirt—she is right there! This member of 1918 does her bit by way of making good use of all of the domestic implements of warfare.

Geneva A. Daland

Household Economics

Track (1, 2), Y.W.C.A. Census Committee (3), Y.W.C.A. Missionary Committee (4).

"He who does not think too much of himself is much more esteemed than he imagines."—Goethe.

Always busy and deeply serious, "Dr. Daland" spends most of her time in Biology Lab. That she will attain her high ideals is not to be questioned.

Dorothy Madeleine Day

"Dot"

Secretarial

Class Secretary (1), President Musical Association (4), Student Government Council (4), Choir, Glee Club (1, 2, 3, 4), Chairman Ring Committee (2), Welcoming Committee (3).

A smile, a dance, a man—Dot is there. She never—well, hardly ever—misses a week-end trip to Ayer, yet finds a bit of time to devote to Texas. Equally efficient, she is, in tripping the light fantastic toe and presiding over the Musical Association. Not so, Dot?

Daphne M. Damon

Library

"I breathe Heaven's air and Heaven looks down on me
And smiles at my best meanings.
I remain,
Mistress of my own self and mine own soul."

Daphne is one of our self-reliant girls who has gone her quiet way independent of the ideas and opinions of others.

Helen Floyd Deane

Household Economics

Chairman Acquaintance-Week Group (2), Welcoming Committee (3), Corridor Committee (3), Chairman Senior Luncheon (4).

'Tis "two o' nine," Poppy-cop, shall we cross? Or shall we enjoy the good ole coal-shortage and journey far into the land of snow and toboggan chutes, where all is holiday?

Cora B. Davidson

"Davie"

Household Economics

Cheer Leader (1), "Persimmons" Board (1), Welcoming Committee (3).

". . . Sweet, ha, ha!
Neat, ha, ha!
Handsome and fair."

'Tis our Davie to a "T," for she is the class model of good looks and quiet dignity. She is always on the spot when the crowd gathers at "2 G.M." for a meeting of the "G. C's." We are skeptical as to the length of her term of office as dietitian. Watch out for her charms, ye doctors!

Erma May Dike

"Diky"

Secretarial

Bulletin Board Committee (2).

Erma is a student, but a far better sport;
Full many of us have places in her big, warm heart.

She started with an aim—to come out on top. The idea has persisted, and she has won success. We are glad and say to her, "Good luck to you, Derma Ike!"

Carolyn M. Dickson

"Dick" "Dicky"

Secretarial

Thorough, competent, kind, and true.
Dicky, dear, we speak of you.

Ruth Dubois

Secretarial

Ruth is one of the famous "Medical Secs." We do not doubt that she can diagnose anything from an adding machine and a microscope, to "T. B."

Gladys Dodge

"Glad"

Household Economics

"She is the neatest maid that e'er was seen." Have you never noticed Glad's spic and span white uniforms when she is going to dietetics class or to teach in Public Schools? "Statistics" show that you have observed them.

Abbie E. Dunks

Secretarial

Microcosm Board (4).

Brightest, busiest, did you say?
Knowledge simply comes her way!

Seemingly without great effort, Abbie accomplishes in three years what we others accomplish with difficulty in four. We "take off our hats" to her!

Louise L. Doherty

Household Economics

"Begone dull Care! I prithee begone from me!
Begone dull Care! thou and I shall never agree."

Louise is clever and witty; you can discover her any time by her musical laugh. She can find something amusing in any of life's disappointments, from a block in the subway to a ruined Kjeldahl experiment.

Edith Reynolds Dunn

"Dunnie"

Household Economics

Choir, Glee Club (2, 4), Track Walk (1), Chairman Civilian Relief Committee (4).

"Muse not that I thus suddenly proceed.
For what I will, I will, and there an end."

Mary F. Ellis

Secretarial

Business Manager Microcosm (4), Library Quiet Committee (2).

"The mildest manners and the gentlest heart."

Mary has a fine young time,
She has it frequently,
For she goes speeding all around
In a kind friend's fliv, you see.

N. B.—Mary can run a Ford herself, as well as she does an Underwood, or the "Microcosm."

Elizabeth Eldridge Fisher

Secretarial

Choir, Glee Club (3, 4), Corridor Committee (3), Endowment Fund (4), Lunchroom Committee (4).

"A merry heart goes all the day."

Frances Elwell

Household Economics

Track Walk (1), Track (3).

"Of all the heavenly gifts that mortal men commend,
What trusty treasure in the world can countervail a friend?"

Pauline Fisk

Household Economics

Her one aim has been to attach a "B.S." to her name; when that has been accomplished she will seek again for a purpose in life.

Bernice Field

"Bunny"

Household Economics

"Be in time, be in time, be in time."

In spite of her habit of arriving late, Bunny usually gets there.

Ruth E. FitzGerald

Secretarial

"You're my friend—
What a thing friendship is, world without end."
—Browning.

And what one of us cannot call our Ruthie, "Friend!"

Helen G. Flack

Secretarial

Burns says,

"To see her is to love her,
And love best her forever;
For nature made her what she is,
And never made anither."

So say we.

Hester Foster

Household Economics

All are Hester's:

One constant smile,
And never a grouch,
All cuts redeemed
And a rest-room couch.

Annie M. Flynn

"Ann"

Secretarial

"Oh, blest with temper whose unclouded ray
Can make tomorrow cheerful as today."

Annie's cheerful view of college life is contagious.

Laura R. Foster

"Faura Loster"

Secretarial

Corridor Committee (3), Welcoming Committee (3), Basketball (3).

Laura started out to be a secretary, but we think she may become, eventually, a dietitian. She lives in South Hall, but there are other "halls" of which she is very fond.

Charlotte Egan Ford

"Charlie"

Library

Executive Board (3), Class Vice-President (4), Secretary Student Government (4), Mandolin Club (1, 2), Orchestra (3, 4), Chairman Junior-Senior Picnic (3), Chairman Class Day (4).

"My numbers may be 'eight and nine,' already I have refused 'my one,' but never, never shall I refuse such luscious chocolate cake!" She is the best little G. I. member that ever was, kids.

Gertrude Franz

"Gert"

Household Economics

Microcosm Board (4).

Do you want a bit of help? Or do you crave only sympathy? If you demand good cheer, or to dance away your troubles, we refer you to but one girl—Gert.

S. Ethel Gallagher

"Eth"

Secretarial

When you want to know "the location of a lesson," just ask Ethel. She is dependable, and more than that, a good student and true friend.

Ethel H. Garey

"Eth"

Library

President Vermont Club (4), Dormitory Council (4), Chairman Y. W. C. A. Mission Study Committee (3), Secretary Vermont Club (3).

Ethel believes that a "good ole" sense of humor should be kept ready for use. Perhaps this is why she has the reputation of being the best little list'ner in the whole Library School.

Gladys L. Garland

"Glad"

Secretarial

Flower Committee (1), Corridor Committee (3).

"With gentle yet prevailing force,
Intent upon her destined course,
Graceful and useful all she does,
Blessing and blest where'er she goes.
—Cowper.

Gladys is the girl who puts things through; things move when she speaks. Just start an argument. Yet she is gay, and shows to strangers but little of what "lies deep."

Lillian H. Gates

Household Economics

Chairman Social and Civic Club (4), Student Government Council (4).

O cultured one! So fair of face
We marvel at thy stately grace.
Where do you find such magic words,
With which you charm us as you speak?
A girl who knows more books and art
We cannot find, where e'er we seek.

Ruth Deane Gates

"Gatesy"

Secretarial

Class Treasurer (4), House Chairman (4), Mandolin Club (1, 2, 3, 4), Chairman Acquaintance Week Group (2), Welcoming Committee (3), Endowment Fund (1, 2).

We shall not say that she is boyish, yet she is so inclined. When she appears at fire drill entirely "halo-ed", however, we know that there is much of the girl in her. The best of luck to that mad desire to obtain a position in California! Lest we forget, "What time is it?"

Madeline Gavin

Household Economics

"I saw her upon nearer view,
A Spirit, yet a Woman, too!
Her household motions light and free,"
Of serious intent,
On Conservation bent.

Louise Williams Gerald

Household Economics

"A merry heart doth good like a medicine.'

Louise sees the funny side of things, if one can be found by diligent search. She is conscientious, yet never worries, for cheerfulness cures all worry. Tenderness in abundance is one of her possessions, we know, since she spends it lavishly upon "mysterious' organisms bred in culture-tubes."

Elizabeth Gillies

"Betty"

Library

Her air, her manners, all who saw admired;
Courteous, though coy; gentle, though retired.
The joy of youth and love her eyes displayed,
And ease of heart her every look conveyed.

Gladys Hadley

Library

Chairman Freshman-Junior Party (1), Manager Mandolin Club (3), Choir, Mandolin Club (2, 3).

Gladys possesses characteristics that are seldom found in one and the same person. She is the exception which proves the rule that good earnest work and plain Yankee bluff cannot go hand in hand.

Mary Stevens Hamblett

"Steve"

Household Economics

President New Hampshire Club (4), Chairman Red Cross (4), Dormitory Council (4), Welcoming Committee (3), Vice-President New Hampshire Club (3).

"If you would have a thing well done," or in other words, if you would have good eats, leave it to Steve. Girls! Shall you ever forget the Junior-Senior picnic?

Mary Evelina Hatch

Library

Editor "Persimmons" (4), "Persimmons" Board (3), Dramatic Committee (3).

"Compel me not to toe the mark
Be ever prim and true,
But rather let me do those things
That I ought not to do."

"Mary, Mary, quite contrary," does fit her in certain moods, but only adds a bit of spice to a mighty nice girl.

Esther Georgia Hawley

Household Economics

"Oh! I'm a wreck!"

The wreck of the Hesperus has nothing on Esther after she has been teaching. She believes, however, in an "all around" education. She labors at sewing, delights in English, and is verily, in Elysian Fields when at tea.

Beula Lloyd Hayden

"Peg"

Household Economics

Chairman Endowment Fund (4), Vice-President Student Government (4), President New Jersey Club (4), Glee Club, Choir, (1, 2), Cheer Leader (1), Basketball, Track (1), Welcoming Committee (3).

If you want a prize song written,
If you want a party planned,
If you want a jolly companion,
Go to Peg.

But, if you seek a girl who never spends a week-end away, Peg is not that girl.

Mildred E. Hodges

Secretarial

Small she is, yet big of heart and brimful of merriment. Everything provides fun for her,—even studying! Her cares are well hidden. She ought to be "A Cure for Blues" instead of "Little Hodgie."

Marguerite Hooper

Household Economics

A pretty wit, a well-stored mind,
Bright azure eyes, and golden hair
Hath she. She is—we are not blind—
Most fair.

Helen G. Jacobs

"Jakie"

General Science

Executive Board (4), Chairman Public Health Committee (4), Chairman Class Picture-Album (3), Track (3), Basketball (3), Choir, Glee Club (3, 4).

Loyal, "gritty," generous, and capable is Jake. We wish that she would give us the recipe for "the fitting of seven hours of thesis, two hours of tutoring, a class meeting, one basketball game,—not to mention dietetics, into one college day."

"Heart to conceive, the understanding to direct, or the hand to execute."

Jake has absorbed all the science courses; now she is beginning on the Household Ec. programme. Is her aim an all-round education, or —

Emma Pauline Jacobs

Secretarial

Sophomore Luncheon Committee (2), Junior Prom Floor Committee (3).

"I cannot come out for basketball,
Jake;
For if I would become a "Secretary of Medics," Surely I have no time to spend on athletics."

Florence L. Job

Household Economics

Florence is happily named for it must require infinite patience to carry seven difficult subjects, keep a watchful eye on three little nieces, and lend a hand to all who need help. We are grateful to Doane College for this cheerful classmate.

Julia T. Jochum

Household Economics

Y. W. C. A. Census Committee (3), Y. W. C. A. Social Service Committee (4).

Four long years Julia has suffered from "the mispronunciation of her home town." Four long years we have waited patiently for her to change her residence—if it were merely for the convenience of instructors!

Dorothy Elizabeth Jones

"Betty"

Household Economics

Treasurer of N. Y. State Club (2), Endowment Fund (2), Welcoming Committee (3), Mandolin Club (2).

"How happy could I be with either
Were t'other dear charmer away!"

We call her "Jetty Bones," but she never, never bones for lessons. If she becomes a dietitian, the patients in the hospital will chant in chorus,—

"I don't want to get well."

Eleanor Jones

Secretarial

"Above our life we love a steadfast friend."

Eleanor is partial to cats, literature, military uniforms, and a long night's sleep. She is famous for her wit.

Madeleine Dickerson Kingsley

"Mandy"

Household Economics

Microcosm Board (3, 4), Choir, Glee Club (3, 4), Corridor Committee (3), House Chairman (4), Chairman Y. W. C. A. Music and Flower Committee (4).

Out-of-doors, indoors, Mandy is just the same;
Tennis, farming, lesson-plans,—all are in the game;
As systematized by Mandy,
Success in all is gained.

Alice Klein

"Al"

General Science

Art Editor Microcosm (4), Y. W. C. A. Cabinet (4), Track (1, 3), Prom Usher (2), Student Government Program Committee (4), Welcoming Committee (3), Executive Board (3), "Quarterly" Board (3), Chairman Commencement Program Committee (4).

Would that we were half as able,
Half as talented,
Half as capable,
As Alice; who is artist, chemist, student,
And—best of all—a lovable girl.

Thelma Isham Knight

"Jack"

Household Economics

Endowment Fund (1), Tennis Doubles (1), Secretary Somerville Club (3), Corridor Committee (3), Welcoming Committee (3), Chairman Senior Events Committee (4).

"Tall and Stately" is Jack in appearance—She is the best authority on "How to attend all the movies and get A's and B's at the same time." Jack is addicted to long walks; and to being an all-round good sport.

Loretta Aurelia Knightly

Library

Basketball (3).

Loretta's diversity of tastes and enthusiasm for sports are good for 1918. Our admiration of her ardent devotion to the lobsters and frogs of biology is equalled only by our respect for her enthusiastic support of hiking, basketball, and hockey.

Harriet Leonard

"Harry"

Household Economics

Track (1), Prom Usher (2), Executive Board (3), Dormitory Council (4), Y. W. C. A. Cabinet (4).

"In books, or work, or healthful play,
My college years are passed;
And so I give for every day
Some good account at last."

Rhoda B. Lawrence

Secretarial

"There is a great deal of unmapped country within us which would have to be taken into account in an explanation of our gusts and storms."

We all know Rhoda's propensity for "funning," but it never goes below the surface as one might expect from her remarks.

Helen Whyte McCulloch

"Jean"

Household Economics

Class Treasurer (1), Mandolin Club (1, 2), Prom Usher (2), Chairman Sophomore Luncheon (2), S. A. A. Executive Board (4), Endowment Fund (4).

"What neat repast shall feast us, light and choice?"

In other words, "Got anything to eat?" When this momentous question has been decided, the next is, "Where shall we go for the week-end?" But she's a mighty fine girl for a' that.

Margaret Patricia Lenihan

"Pat"

Secretarial

Margaret is quite apt to worry a lot
When really there is no need;
For lacking in brains she surely is not!
And she's most conscientious indeed.

J. Claire MacDonald

"Claire"

Secretarial

Choir, Glee Club (3, 4), Student Editor "Quarterly" (4), "Quarterly" Board (3), Census Committee (3).

"It is not growing like a tree
In bulk doth make man better be."

Can anyone who knows Claire doubt the truth of that statement? She combines in her scant five feet of stature tremendous amounts of energy and enthusiasm.

Katherine G. McManmon

"K" "Minnie"

Secretarial

Class Secretary (3) Track (1, 2), Microcosm Board (2), "Persimmons" (1), Executive Board (2), Cheer Leader (2), Ukelele Club (3).

"K" is a blighted genius. Her cares and troubles would fill volumes—"blue, darkly, deeply, beautifully blue"—what? her eyes, of course. She is a pioneer "ukelele-ist," plays entirely by ear, and has a very deft touch.

Miriam Longenecker Mann

"Mim"

Household Economics

Ukelele Club (3).

What, Mim in a scrape again? Cheer up! we know you will get out somehow. You proved that to us when you chased that elusive black muff through the crooked streets of Boston and finally cornered it at the warehouse.

Blanche A. Macræ

Household Economics

Blanche is artistically inclined. But that is not the only reason she has taken every design course given in college! How does the Morse code of telegraphy appeal to her, we wonder.

Hazel Helen Marsh

"Muddy"

Household Economics

Bulletin Board Committee (3), Chapel Committee (3).

"A face that's best
By its own beauty drest,
And can alone commend the rest."

Rae Mandelstam

Secretarial

President Menorah Society (4), Secretary Menorah Society (3), Welcoming Committee (3), Chairman Prom Program Committee (3), Basketball (3), Hockey (4).

Our Rae:
She's little, she's petite,
Her blue eyes are unusually sweet,
And though she is small,
We all can see
She has the dash and style
That we all envy.

Sarah Watkins Mayo

"Sally"

Library

Sally seems to be a demure lass, but appearances are deceiving. Her life has been full of varied experiences, and her interests are many. Anyone who has special information concerning German Psychology, please communicate with Sarah and receive her gratitude. She aspires to a "Ph.D." in this field.

Helen Emens Merriam

Secretarial

Business Manager "Persimmons" (4), "Persimmons" Board (3), Mandolin Club (3, 4).

"Ready in heart and ready in hand."
—Tennyson.

Ready to laugh with the funniest of us, ready to work with the busiest of us, ready to please each of us, and sure to do it better than any of us.

Rachel Thayer Meserve

"Ray"

Household Economics

Treasurer Y. W. C. A. (2), Vice-President Y. W. C. A. (3), Social and Civic Executive Board (3), Chairman Finance Y. W. C. A. (2), Chairman Census Committe (3), Welcoming Committee (3), Leader Watchward Services (3).

Rachel is one of our most conscientious girls; yet, she is always ready to play. The combination of these characteristics will bring her success, we feel sure.

Verta Iola Mills

"Vert"

Secretarial

Class President (2), Class Vice-President (1), Prom Usher (2), Dormitory Council (4), Chairman Welcoming Committee (3), Chairman Senior Faculty Party (4).

"My sweethearts is somewhere in France."

All join in the chorus. If we were to draw a picture of her—'twould be a circle—all-round girl. She attends to everything from the Secretarial Faculty to running our parties—and running to many other successful parties.

Grace Evelyn Moir

Secretarial

Your perseverance, Grace, is bound to bring you success. We who are permitted to know you outside the classroom realize that in no corner of this earth of ours could we find a friend to compare with you.

Eleanor Dana Monroe

Secretarial

Who shall say what I can do? Though young in years, Eleanor has sufficient "pep" and industry to allow her to qualify admirably as a Social Secretary. Doesn't someone, preferably a sailor, need "one such secretary"?

Anna C. Moran

"Ann"

Secretarial

Have you never accompanied Ann on one of her hikes
For miles and miles through Milton's woods and hills?
Even "Sue" and "Tommy" never could keep up on "bikes,"
For her feet move 'most as fast as her fingers on violin trills.

Anne M. Mulcaster

Household Economics

Glee Club, Choir (1, 2, 3, 4), Social and Civic Board (3, 4), Secretary-Treasurer of the Silver Bay Club, Chairman Senior-Freshman Party (4).

"I would be giving and forget the gift; I would look up and laugh and lift."

Anne has worked for us, played with us, sung to us, cured our blues and mothered us all. '18 would not have been '18 without her and we wish she could go with us all to stand by with a laugh and a song.

Claire Priscilla Myron

"Clarence"

Secretarial

Dormitory Magazine Committee (4).

"If it were not for dogs and Frenchmen I think I could not live."

Claire's beautiful name has been perverted, which upsets her—when she stays awake long enough to hear it. She has in her repertoire a wonderful story about a coal man.

Margaret B. Nottingham

Library

There were two things which kept Margaret very busy (and kept not a few of us busy—wondering), during college days. They were moving and removing her "graveyard of flowers" and her photographs. Let us know when and why you stop the practice, Margaret.

Marguerite M. O'Brien

Secretarial

"Steadfastness is a noble quality—guided by knowledge in humility, and will remove all obstacles that obstruct the path of renown."

Marie G. O'Brien

Secretarial

Dramatics (3, 4).

"She loves to be merry and wise."

This stylish, petite, young lady knows a host of people. Trinity College kept Marie from us for two years, but now that she is one of us we are glad that we have not been deprived of her companionship for a longer time.

Margaret Ella O'Connor

"Peg"

Household Economics

Class President (4), Student Government Council (4), Endowment Fund (3), Corridor Committee (3), Cap and Gown Committee (3).

A happy smile that cheers us through,
A heart that is of truest blue,
Wondrous tact and judgment, too—
  That's Peg.
Unfailing generosity
Our symbol of democracy
  Is Peg.

Gertrude E. O'Neil

Secretarial

Treasurer Student Government (4), Junior-Senior Picnic Committee (3).

"Wouldst have a friend?—Wouldst know what friend is best
Those who have you for a friend know who passeth all the rest."

Sarah Crocker Page

"Sally"

Secretarial

President Dramatic Association (4), Student Government Council (4), Secretary Dormitory Government (3), Chairman Dramatic Committee (3), Microcosm Board (2, 3, 4), Class Secretary (2), Prom Usher (2), "Persimmons" Board (1), Fire Chief (1).

Sally's dominant characteristic is whole-hearted enthusiasm for everything and everybody. When she came to Simmons from a Quaker boarding-school, she had a consuming passion for ice cream and the theatre, and her interest has never waned. She loves to run her paint brush over a bit of paper and bring forth a poster or a hundred place-cards, and yet she is looking forward to a pedagogical career.

Hazel A. Payson

Household Economics

Chairman Mission Study Y. W. C. A. (4), Public Health Committee (4).

"Have not too low thoughts of thyself; the confidence a man has of his being pleasant in his demeanor is a means whereby he infallibly cometh to be such."

Rachael Annette Payson

Library

"For it's always fair weather
When good fellows get together."

There is nothing that Rachael likes better than a jolly good time, but unfortunately (for her) she possesses a troublesome conscience which forces her to devote a great part of her time to study—far too great a part, she thinks. No one recognizes better than Rachael the difference between an evening of study and one of fun.

Eleanor Weston Perry

"El"

Household Economics

President Silver Bay Club (4), Press Board (4), Chairman Bible Study Y. W. C. A. (4), Choir, Glee Club (1, 2, 3, 4), Prom Usher (2), Welcoming Committee (3), Corridor Committee (3).

A keen mind of executive bent,
Conscientious, reliant, and independent;
A twinkling eye of kindly blue,
This is the girl whose "metal" rings true.

Emilie Peristiano

Household Economics

With dauntless courage "Miss Peristiano" left her World Renowned Land, braved thousands of miles of stormy seas, and came to Modern America—for knowledge! We lament the War, yet we cannot help rejoicing when we think of the exiled Greek which it has given to 1918.

Lydia M. Potter

"Lyd"

Household Economics

"Lyd" is a dear, with golden hair and a "far-reaching" smile for which we love her. She helps us, she cheers us when we feel blue. If you wish to strike her weak point, just ask her the "where, and what, and how" about the "Automatum," and why she frequents that particular spot. Possession of a weak point makes her one of us.

Mildred Powell

"Polly"

Library

Library Quiet Committee (2), Corridor Committee (3), Dormitory Magazine Committee (4).

"When you do dance, I wish you
A wave o' the sea, that you
Might ever do
Nothing but that."

Your intellectual propensities do not conflict with your desire for a good time. Here's to many of them!

Mary Rochester Randall

"Mary Jane"

Secretarial

Chairman Mascot Committee (1), Secretary Dixie Club (2), Chairman Prom Floor Committee (3), Chairman Silver Bay Rally (4), Welcoming Committee (3), Corridor Committee (3).

"You all" know that Mary came originally from Florida, although her experiences and travels have extended into the Canadian Domain, to say nothing of a certain part of California. Mary should apply "business methods" to "accounts" of her admirers and parties.

Margaret H. Raser

"Peg"

Secretarial

"People that make puns are like wanton boys that put coppers on the railroad tracks."

Peg's allowance is always spent.
New fountain pens take every cent;
And since she from the West doth hail,
She thinks our Boston "highbrows" stale.
She need not worry a single bit.
She always makes a tremendous "hit";
The girls adore and boys love more.
And Peg has admirers by the score.

Elinor F. Reilly

General Science

Secretary Suffrage Club (1), Basketball (1, 2, 3, 4), Manager (1), Track (1, 2, 3) Vice-President Dixie Club (2), Treasurer S. A. A. (2), Chairman Dramatic Publicity Committee (2), Chairman of Hiking, S. A. A. (4), Social and Civic Executive Board (4), Public Health Committee (3).

Upstairs, downstairs, there's business everywhere;
Meet'n' to talk Socialism — Elinor shoos us there;
"Come on, shoot baskets in the gym!— take club dues in the hall!"
Sports, feeding rats, publicity — she helps us with them all.

Ruth Richards

Secretarial

He must be tall,
He must be long,
He must be seven feet high.
No tiny doll ——
The fit were wrong,
And Ruth would pass him by.

GERTRUDE H. ROBINSON

"S. J."

Library

Choir, Glee Club (3, 4).

"Jane" dislikes the movies so!
Thinks that "highbrows" never go.
Postage stamps she'll never lick,
Keeps a sponge to make them stick.
"Rather attractive" shops she finds
"Selecting" blouses of all kinds.
Jane is thoughtful; she is bright;
A veritable dear, and a shining light.
Jane is wholesome; Jane is fair,
And, upon my word, she's always square!

ELSIE LUCETTA RIEGER

"Else"

Household Economics

President Pennsylvania Club (4), Vice-President Club (3), Chairman Acquaintance-Week Group (2), Dramatic Club Plays (2, 3), Choir, Glee Club (3, 4), Chairman Costume Committee, Dramatics (4).

"Else" comes from Reading, the third largest city in Pennsylvania. She is an unusually gifted girl; no one who has seen her enact, "Is this the Love thou Gavest Me?" denies her dramatic talent. When she makes her debut on the stage we shall know that Else's second ambition has been realized.

MARION ELIZABETH ROBERTSON

"Bobby"

Household Economics

SQUAREST

We've had lots of tribulations,
Almost more than we could bear;
We've had many trials and troubles,
Other classes did not share.
We've been cup-less,
We've been Prom-less,
Yet a joke we can't forego,
Wouldn't you say the Senior picture,
Was Eighteen's Final Blow?

ODE TO A SENIOR PRIVILEGE

As I consider how my time is spent
When I go in the dining room to eat,
And find that after I have reached my seat
I have to serve a dozen, none content;
I know who needs must on her share conserve,
They always wait who only sit and serve.

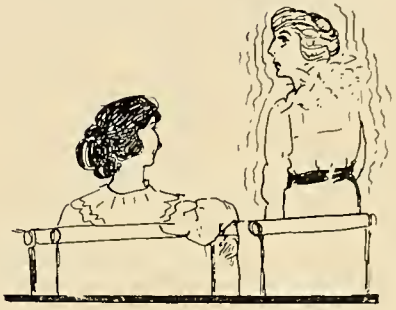
When shades of night have fallen fast,
And Simmons girls reach home at last,
Tired, they seek a lowly cot,
To find the mattress stuffed with what?
EXCELSIOR!

And when they hear the breakfast bell,
They all rush down the stairs pell-mell,
No more on shredded wheat they graze,
What is it meets their eager gaze?
EXCELSIOR!

A OR B NAME SEAT NO.

If an effect could affect an effect, what effect would an effect effect to affect an effect?



After the daily quiz in Sociology, when the President begins to speak, and suddenly decides to call on some one, and looks through the book to see who the victim shall be, and you sit quaking in your seat for fear you are going to be "it," and then—then, he calls on the girl next to you!

Oh, ain't it a Grand and Glorious Feeling?

And when you haven't done your History, and you've grumbled over the length of the assignment, and the impossibility of ever doing it, and when you've dragged yourself up three flights of stairs knowing you are going to be called on, and knowing you are going to flunk, and then when you get to the door you find the notice of a "Cut"

Oh, ain't it a Grand and Glorious Feeling?

And then you find that marks are out, and you go up to get yours, joining the long line of shivering "studes," and the line gradually gets shorter, and before you know it you have the fatal envelope in your trembling clutch; and when you rush out of the office lest your friends should stop you with a mad clamor of "what'd you get?" and you hurry into some secluded corner before you dare to open it, and then you find you haven't anything lower than a "B."

Oh! ain't it a Grand and Glorious Feeling?

Oh, it's jolly to be just a gay Junior lassie,
It's jolly to be with all other gay lassies,
It's jolly to live e'en without any laddie,
This beautiful Patrick's Day morning.

Oh, we all wear the green, but we are not the greenest,
We're jolliest, liveliest, yes and the tunefullest,
Lot of young Juniors, who sing in the merriest song,

Junior Week

Do you remember Junior Welcome Week
When it was a Great Life
If only you didn't Weaken?

You were a Junior
And you were put on the Welcome Committee,
And you were awfully flattered
Because you thought your duty
Consisted wholly
In standing on the College Steps,
Dressed in Snowy White
And singing Sweet Songs
Of Salutation
To the very startled
But visibly impressed
Freshmen!

Oh the sweet Bliss
Of happy Ignorance!
You found instead
That you were expected to become
A permanent Fixture
Of the North Station
And the South Station,
Generally trying to be in both places
At the same time,
Wearing a blue and gold badge
And a harassed expression,
You gazed frantically
At the hordes of people,
Searching for the Mysterious Unknown
Who had said that she was
A Tall Girl in a Purple Hat,
And you were horrified to find
No less than twenty Tall Girls
In Purple Hats
Getting off the same train,
And you were about to select one
By the process of "Eeny-meeny-miny-mo"
When you were clutched
By a Tall Girl
In a Bright Green Hat.
The Silly Thing had changed her hat
At the last Minute!

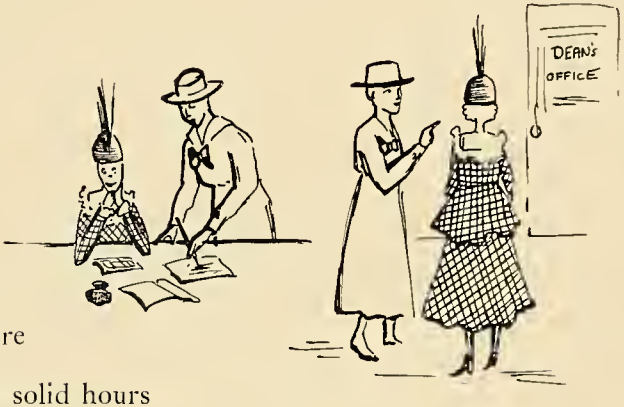
You carried her suit-case
Under the vague impression
That you were being everything
That a Perfect Hostess
Should be
And you began to believe
That the Thing had in it
All her Lares and Penates
Except perhaps
The Kitchen Stove;
And she smiled coyly on your struggles
And said at intervals,
"Heavy, isn't it?"
And you drew a long, deep breath
And said in tones that dripped
With the sweetness
Of Honey,
"Oh not at all!"
And the Recording Angel
Didn't hold it up against you,
But entered the remark
Under the column headed
"Justifiable Lies."

Nor were your sufferings
Yet over.
There was still Registration
That Ordeal of Red Tape
Second only in Refined Torture
To the Inquisition.
And after you had spent three solid hours
Making out her Programmes
And signing her Cards
And showing the Bewildered Damsel
Over the building
To a running Accompaniment
Of decidedly Tactless Questions
Such as
"Why wasn't the Library
Built nearer the Ground?"
And "Where is the Campus?"
You led her
Affiliated House-wards,
And then you went home
And had Hysterics.



A MIX-UP

When Household Ecs. first take Accounts,
  Their plight is most pathetic,
They hardly know a Balance Sheet
  From an evening dress esthetic;
The questions they perforce must ask,
  Are really quite amusing,
Instructors are bewildered
  While to answer they're refusing.
And yet the blunders are as naught
  To those of Secretaries,
At their first initiation
  In the methods of libraries;
For they had always heard it said
  That Dewey was an Admiral;
Imagine, then, their dire dismay
  To find him but a Decimal!

SHORTAGE.

The word is now used as never before,
And its meaning is different each day of the war,
We had shortage of sugar, likewise of wheat,
But worse than all else was the shortage of heat.

The heat at the Dorms had been fine, there's no doubt,
And at no time of day was that fire found out,
But the shortage that left us sans meat and sans wheat
Next struck a blow at our innocent heat.

'Twas the night before mid-years,
The clock had not struck,
When out on the campus
Appeared a coal truck.

The Dorms were all quiet—
The Board-walk asleep,
But they all came to life,
For the coal man's rare treat.
He'd been looking for coal-bins all night quite in vain,

Till from cold and from anger, his thoughts grew profane,
And now we all know as we ne'er knew before
That coal hauling is Sherman's opinion of war.

THRU THE LOOKING-GLASS AT SIMMONS

One day when I was studying in a dry and tiresome book,
I opened up my vanity case for just one little look.
I don't know how it happened—couldn't tell you if I tried,
But I fell thru the mirror, clear into the other side!
And then the funny things I saw so took me by surprise
That I just stood there open-mouthed and stared with all my eyes.
Up there in the Library they were eating soup and pie,
Sitting round on books like cushions, piled up sky-high.
And everywhere the Sophomores so wistful and so shy
Regarded stately Freshmen as they went sailing by.
The Seniors waved their gowns and threw their caps up in the air,
And Juniors played tag gaily 'round the halls and everywhere!
Girls in sweaters, "sneaks" and bloomers scribbled poetry on the wall,
And high-heeled, dainty maidens brandished sticks and tossed ball.
Well, such a mixed-up hubbub I ne'er before did see,
Till some meek and humble Juniors whispered, "Sh!" quite lamb-like-ly,
And everybody hushed up in the most astonishing way.
You could tell that things were twisted—they don't do that every day!
And they sang songs from history books, and played a merry tune,
And classes ne'er began on time, and e'er let out too soon.
And things were all quite lovely, but they passed away, alas!
When I came tumbling back again, and broke my looking-glass!

FOR THE LOVE O' MIC!

Freshman: "How can I stop walking in my sleep?"
Sophomore: "Take your carfare to bed with you."

The Household Ecs. announce that we shall continue to eat Win-the-War bread, but the use of the Garfield Loaf on Mondays is to be discontinued for the present.

Instructor: How do we know that bacteria are not killed by cold?
Freshman: Because crocuses come up in the spring?

Miss J., in Chemistry: When you have finished looking at that hay, Miss D., put Miss H's. bean under the microscope. (We wonder whether Miss H. had provided an instrument for the decapitation.)

"Yes, the exam was perfectly easy except we couldn't answer the questions and we couldn't ask the instructor about it, or get our friends to show us how to do it, and there wasn't anything to do but sit there and draw pictures."

Crowds of maidens, wan and weary,
Sought the great explorer, Peary,
Saying, "Sir, we wish to join you
On your next trip to the Pole."
Peary said he couldn't do it,
That they'd only live to rue it
Once they left the land of furnaces
And oil-stoves and coal.

Then the maidens, wan and weary,
Laughed a laugh—'twas shrill and eerie,
Saying, "What are Arctic regions
To an icy Simmons Dorm?
Sir, your reasoning is silly,
If you fear we should be chilly,
Why, we only want to take the trip,
In order to get warm!"

Simmons stands for conservation,
And to substitute we're taught,
Yet in every "lab" and lecture
We get lots of food (for thought).

And all of our instructors
Quite forgetting they should save,
Give us light on every subject,
Whether it is gay or grave.

If Mr. Storrow came to visit
I'm afraid he would object
To the brilliancy displayed here
Even in Freshman 'rithmetic.

But surely, Mr. Storrow,
You will not blame us all,
For the number of our shining lights
Is really very small.

1918'S JUNIOR PROM.—1952

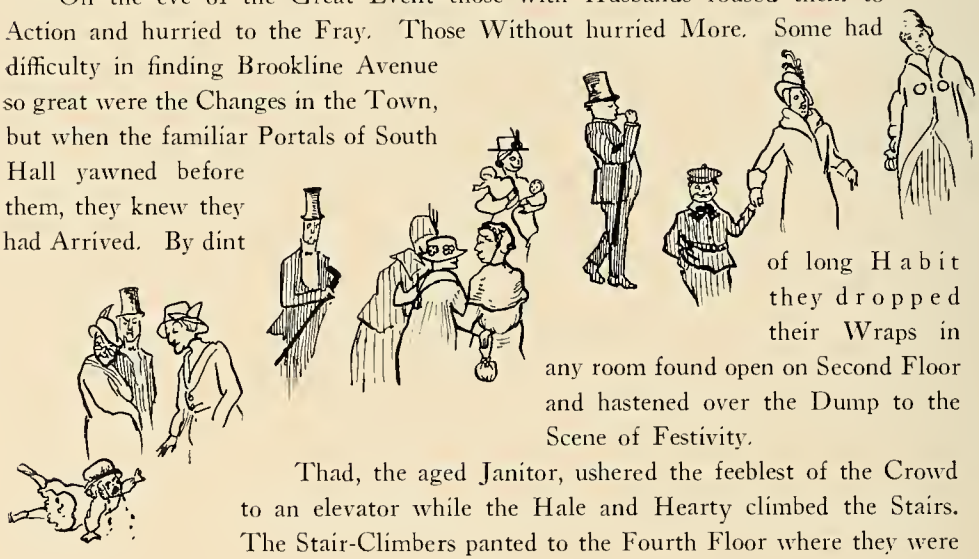
By Lem N. Ade (With apologies to George Ade)

The Year before Stout Ladies attired in Khaki Uniforms stood on street corners begging innocent Passers-by to purchase Smileage Books, a Class of Gay Spinsters at Simmons Female Institute gave up the Big Party and passed on the Price to their Battling Brothers "over there." Much spare time was exhausted in knitting Hopeless Helmets and Other Articles of value in the Trenches.

The Glad Rags were folded away in Lavendar and the Girls dropped a Silent Tear over their Ruined Hopes. A Ray was shed on the Sad Scene by the Prospect of a Prom in the long-looked for Students' Building in the Near Future. The Youthful Gleaners of Knowledge left their Alma Mater hugging a Sheepskin and a Secret Hope. As the years passed, the Hope died in the Breasts of Some who were called to "Higher things" and Feebly Flickered in the hearts of a Faithful Few.

In 1949 the Flicker was fanned to a Flame by the Announcement that the Building was started. At periodic Intervals the Damsels pulled out the Gay raiment from Dark Closets and lovingly smoothed the wrinkled folds. The First of April, 1952, in the Morning Mail of the Few Survivors came the Invitations to the Prom. Still Kittenish despite their Infirmities, the Girls dropped their Tasks to air the Gala Attire once more, preparatory to appearing three weeks hence. The Quiet of Peaceful Homes was wrecked by Mothers learning to trip the Light Fantastic as of Yore under the Tutelage of their Offspring.

On the eve of the Great Event those with Husbands roused them to Action and hurried to the Fray. Those Without hurried More. Some had difficulty in finding Brookline Avenue so great were the Changes in the Town, but when the familiar Portals of South Hall yawned before them, they knew they had Arrived. By dint of long Habit they dropped their Wraps in any room found open on Second Floor and hastened over the Dump to the Scene of Festivity.



Thad, the aged Janitor, ushered the feeblest of the Crowd to an elevator while the Hale and Hearty climbed the Stairs. The Stair-Climbers panted to the Fourth Floor where they were met by a Jolly Welcoming Committee. The Original Plan of Garnishing the Hall was carried out. Festoons of Flimsy Lanterns were sprinkled about while a moth-eaten Simmons 1918 banner draped itself on the Wall. A Cluster of potted Plants sheltered a row of Wheel-Chairs which received the Invalids and Other Infirm. The Strains of a hidden Orchestra rent the Air and the Party was On.

The Students attending the Famous Institute ushered the Promenaders in, casting Furtive Glances at the Rainment of the Class of umpty eighteen. At eight-thirty the Dance began. The President of the Class with her Grey-Haired Spouse led off and soon the more agile of the Party joined the Stampede. The Original Busy-Bee, a now Famous Scientist, bustled about to see that Things went right as in the Good Old Days. As Chief Administrator, she had no time to Dance. The Orchestra jazzed as Formerly, but Now and Then the playful wail of a Youthful Scion mingled with the Strains. Over in the Wheel-Chairs Polite Persiflage was being swapped. Stony Stares were directed at the Budding Blue-Stockings who returned them with Interest. The Class Baby, now at the tender Age of thirty-four, cavorted with the Oldest Living Member. The Party was going Great.

Lights Out was scheduled for eleven. At nine-thirty several Proud Parents retrieved their Progeny to take them home to Bed. Twinges of Rheumatism reminded the Wheel-Chair Brigade that it was Time to seek their own Firesides. The Matrons assured each Other that the Pleasure of Reunioning could never be equalled and departed murmuring Polite Nothings. At ten-thirty when the last Reveler had departed, the Regulars started in to finish the Evening. The last Glimpse they had of the Class of umpty-eighteen was the Black Taffeta Outfit of the Latest Stayer as she sailed out the door. 1918's Prom was over.

Requiescat in Pace.

Class Song

Oh, '17, dear '17,
Time brings the parting of our ways,
Now on the steps your place we take,
Our pledge to guard we'll never break.
Oh, '17, our '17,
The years will make thee dearer far;
Though from the colonnade you've gone,
Our love for you will still live on.

Class Song

TUNE: Memories

Dear '18, our '18,
We've loved you four years through;
And o'er the sea of memory
We'll all drift back to you.
'18 days, '18 ways,
Will in future lead;
And though we're afar,
Wherever we are
We'll be true in both word and deed.

Prize Song, 1916

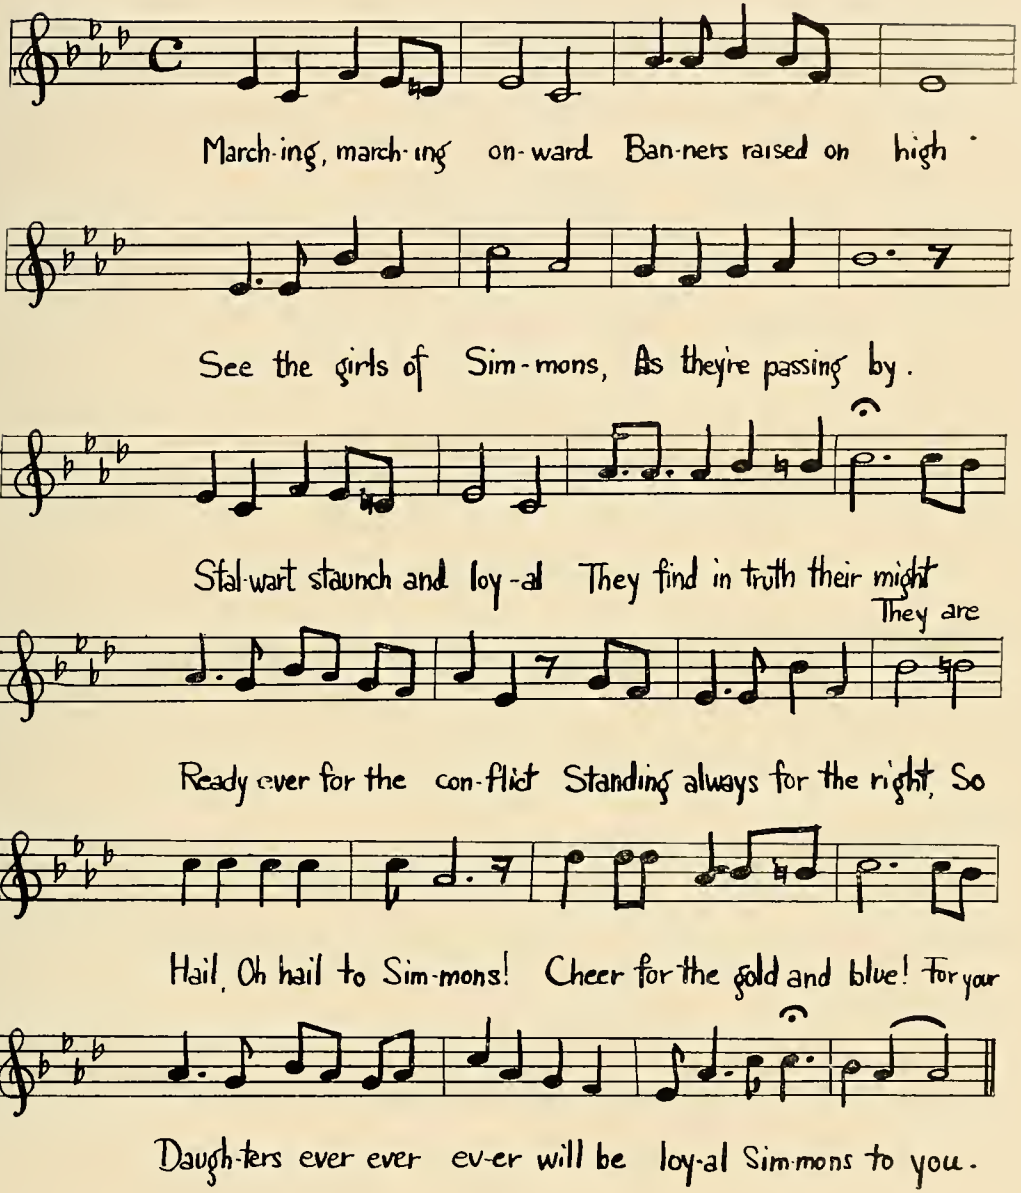
Simmons, to you we'll let our voices rise,
Praises so true are rising to the skies,
And with our hearts and our hands
We'll pledge allegiance true;
Honor to Simmons, to the gold and blue!

Simmons, for you we'll let our actions speak,
And in our hearts your high ideals we'll keep;
And in our work and our play
To your spirit we'll be true;
Honor to Simmons, to the gold and blue!

Prize Song, 1918

Raise high the banner fair.
Unfurl the gold and blue.
Gold stands for priceless worth,
Blue for friendship true.
Our voices e'er we shall raise
In pledge of loyalty.
We give our highest praise,
Simmons, to thee!

MARCHING SONG



March-ing, march-ing on-ward Ban-ners raised on high
See the girls of Sim-mons, As they're passing by.
Stal-wart staunch and loy-al They find in truth their might
They are
Ready ever for the con-flict Standing always for the right, So
Hail, Oh hail to Sim-mons! Cheer for the gold and blue! For your Daugh-ters ever ever ev-er will be loy-al Sim-mons to you.

Afterword

So fast the years go by
Their faces as they fly
Scarcely are seen;
But of them all one year,
Ever to us most dear,
Calls us with summons clear,
Nineteen-eighteen!

To leave the well-known places,
Dear scenes and friendly faces,
It calls us forth;
This summons all must heed,
To serve the world's great need,
Where'er the call may lead
That tries our worth.

My Dear Miss Simmons College Student:

You don't know how well and in what exceedingly good taste, as well as how economically we can furnish you with waists and dresses unless you see what we have to offer.

Waists and dresses are a comparatively new department with us, but those who favor us with inspection in these lines say that we "waist them without waste" and dress them as they like to be dressed, and always touch very lightly on their purse or check book.

Our Apparel Department is in a beautifully appointed suite of rooms, the entrance to which is through our main shop.

May we show you?

Too Good to Pass By

The egg-beater is performing stunts nowadays that were never even dreamed of a short time ago—not with eggs or cream, but with Jell-O.

With an egg-beater and a package of Jell-O the college girl is equipped to make something new—any one of fifty good things to eat that will be enjoyed as a welcome change from the monotony of fudge and kindred fixings.

Plain Jell-O dishes are fine, as everybody knows, but the whipped forms, as easy as the other, are even finer.

Following is a recipe for whipping Jell-O. It is much easier than it sounds:

To Whip Jell-O

Dissolve a package of Jell-O in a pint of boiling water and let it cool. Begin to whip the jelly while it is still liquid—cold but not yet congealing—and whip until it is of the consistency of thick whipped cream. Use a Dover egg-beater and keep the Jell-O cold while whipping by setting the dish in cracked ice, ice water or very cold water. A tin or aluminum quart measure is an ideal utensil for the purpose. Its depth prevents spattering, and tin and aluminum admit quickly the chill of the ice or cold water.

Add cream or whatever else goes into the dessert, if anything does, after—not before—whipping the Jell-O.

The whipping process more than doubles the quantity of plain Jell-O, so that when whipped one package of Jell-O serves twelve persons instead of six.

There are six pure fruit flavors of Jell-O: Strawberry, Raspberry, Lemon, Orange, Cherry, Chocolate. Each 10 cents at any grocer's.

Take time, please, to send us your name and address, so we can send you a new Jell-O Book that will tell you how to make delicious things that are too good to miss.
